

PRESS RELEASE

October 1, 2026

KING, HOLMES, PATERNO & SORIANO ELEVATES ERIKA SAVAGE TO PARTNER

King, Holmes, Paterno & Soriano is pleased to announce that Erika Savage has been promoted to partner in the firm.

With more than 25 years of experience across the music industry, Erika brings a distinctive perspective to her legal practice, having spent her career working with artists and their teams from nearly every side of the business including as a record label attorney and executive, a senior executive at a global talent agency, and now as a talent side attorney.

At KHPS, Erika represents artists, songwriters, managers and independent music companies across a wide array of matters including recorded music, live performance, influencer marketing, and endorsement agreements. Her experience and commitment to advocacy has made her an invaluable part of the team servicing diverse clients that include P!nk, Dr. Dre, Tyler, The Creator, blink-182, Carole King, Sia and Melanie Martinez, as well as independent labels and music companies including Sub Pop, Ghetto Youths International, The Core, Nice Life Records and Victor Victor Worldwide.

Before joining the firm, Erika served as SVP Global Music Operations at United Talent Agency overseeing operations for its global touring division including leading its Business Affairs team and handling strategic planning.

Prior to UTA, Erika spent 19 years at Universal Music Group, including as SVP Strategic Development at Interscope Records, where she led Interscope's non-record revenue business and developed artist strategies across music, brand partnerships, merchandise and touring. She also negotiated recording agreements and handled Business Affairs matters for a roster of multiplatinum artists that included Lady Gaga, Lana Del Rey and Billie Eilish.

Erika has been recognized by Billboard Magazine as an Executive Honoree on the Women In Music list.

Managing Partner Howard King commented: "We are delighted to acknowledge Erika's hard work and strategic vision in helping the firm provide superb service to our clients."

Erika Savage commented: "Becoming a partner at KHPS is an incredibly special milestone for me. I've been fortunate throughout my career to work in support of superstar artists, and now I have the privilege of working alongside superstar lawyers to advocate for those artists and creators. I'm grateful to the entire KHPS team for this opportunity, honored to continue building together and excited to keep fighting the good fight to protect creators and their rights."

The firm of King, Holmes, Paterno & Soriano has a broad practice with particular emphasis on and expertise in entertainment law, complex business litigation, real estate and corporate finance.

For further information, contact Howard King at hking@khpslaw.com or (310) 282-8989 or go to www.khpslaw.com.

KING, HOLMES, PATERNO & SORIANO, LLP